

Frequently Asked Questions

1. What is The Bungalow Club?

The Bungalow Club is an inspiring, high-design, one-of-a-kind gathering spot for adults who crave conversation, connection, and conviviality!

The Club serves drinks and dinner five nights a week and is open during the weekdays (9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.) as a beautiful, shared workspace.

The building was designed with enticing aesthetics—handsome fabrics, color, inspiring spaces—intended to transport you away from your everyday life while at the Club.

In addition to great food and drink, design and architecture, our programming and events will provide opportunities for flat-out fun, laughter, personal growth, and the ability to meet new and interesting people on a continual basis. Live music—monthly House Concerts, piano in the background, and Sunday Chill in the summer—is an integral part of the cultural fabric at the Club. There will be TED-style talks, guest speakers, film nights, club competitions, food and drink specialists, and “clubs within the club” like kayak, knitting, mah-jongg, bourbon, en plein air painting, and more—all designed to get you thinking, moving, laughing, and connecting!

We strive to deliver a kind of hospitality that is rare and elevated but casual and friendly. We endeavor to offer incredible food and drink created and served by top-notch professionals who take their craft and their passion seriously.

2. Where is The Bungalow Club located?

The Bungalow Club is located in the downtown heart of a quaint, historic New England town, Exeter, New Hampshire—One Franklin Street, to be exact. We think of ourselves as “grand country house meets city club”.

The Club sits in the middle of The Porches at Exeter pocket neighborhood with 14 stunning homes surrounding us. Members can walk across the street to the pocket park on the Exeter River with kayak access, wildlife viewings, fishing, and bucolic lounging in Adirondack chairs at the river’s edge.

We are 50 minutes from Boston, 18 minutes to the Seacoast beaches, and 20 minutes to Portsmouth.

3. What are the Club hours?

Please contact the Club for latest hours. Currently the Club is open for dining Tuesday through Saturday evenings, 5PM to close. Co-working and daytime hours are Monday through Friday, 9:00 am to 5:00 pm.

4. What types of memberships are available at The Bungalow Club?

There are several types of membership, including: Couples, Single, Under 40 (Couples & Single), Non-Resident (all these categories include families, if applicable), Corporate and Co-working.

5. How many memberships are available?

The number is currently limited to 250 memberships. Depending on usage of the Club, this number may increase or decrease.

6. What are the privileges of a membership?

A membership allows the member to use the facilities and amenities at The Bungalow Club and to attend club-sponsored events held at the Club. The Club also hosts some group field trips and is currently building a network of reciprocal clubs.

7. Will members of my family be permitted to use the membership privileges?

Each membership category (with the exception of single memberships) is considered a family membership and will have a primary member and authorized users. Immediate family members of the primary member designated as authorized users are permitted to use the facilities in accordance with the Rules and Regulations established by the Club. A member's immediate family includes the member's spouse/partner living in the member's home and unmarried children who are age 26 and younger. All other family members will be treated as guests of the member.

Corporate Memberships are limited to five employees of the Corporate Member. Family members of authorized employees of Corporate Members are considered guests of the Corporate Member.

Authorized users for each membership will be designated on the membership application.

8. Are guests allowed to use the Club facilities?

It is the intention of The Bungalow Club to accommodate guests without inconvenience to the members. Members may sponsor a guest and have Club issue a Guest Card. Guests are more than welcome to pay with their credit card; however, members are responsible for all fees and charges incurred by their guests if their accounts are not settled.

9. Are children allowed to attend the Club?

Yes! But keep in mind that we are an adult-focused Club. Children under age 14 must be under adult supervision and may not roam the Club. After 7:00 p.m., The Dining Room is reserved for members and guests age 12 and older.

10. What types of fees are associated with membership, and how much are they?

Applicants for membership must pay the applicable one-time, nonrefundable Membership Initiation Fee (MIF) to become members of the Club. Members must also pay monthly dues and meet a quarterly food and beverage spending minimum. The Club establishes the amount of dues, fees, and other charges to be paid by all members from time to time to maintain a high level of service and amenities.

The fees for each current (Fall/Winter 2019) membership type established for the are outlined below.

All fees, dues, and charges are subject to change at the discretion of the Club

11. Are memberships transferable?

No. Members may not transfer or otherwise assign their membership privileges except to the Club. However, memberships may be transferred to an adult child of a member, to a spouse or adult child upon death of a member, or to the ex-spouse of a member upon divorce as provided in the Rules and Regulations of the Club.

12. Can a member transfer their membership to an adult child?

Yes, members may request that the Club transfer their membership to an adult child, who has reached age 26, of the member or spouse upon approval by the Club and the member's spouse, if any. The child must submit an application for membership and pay the required MIF to the Club. The required MIF shall be equal to the difference between the MIF then being charged by the Club and the actual MIF originally paid by the member. Once the membership has been transferred to the child, the original member's privileges will be discontinued.

13. What happens upon the death of a member of The Bungalow Club?

In the event of the death of a member, the membership privileges remain with the surviving spouse/ partner. In the event there is no surviving spouse/partner or the surviving spouse/ partner does not wish to continue membership, then the membership may be transferred to an adult child (who has reached age 26) of the deceased member upon payment to the Club of the difference between the then-prevailing MIF and the actual MIF paid by the deceased member. Otherwise, the membership shall be deemed resigned.
